February 5, 12, 19, 26
March 5, 12
Times: 3:30 – 5:00 p.m.
Cost: FREE
Supervisors: Angie Swenson
Jordan Creviston
John Lee
Stacey Warne
Location: Gym

ADULT BASIC EDUCATION

The Northwest Service Cooperative Adult Basic Education helps adult learners achieve high school equivalency (GED or Adult Diploma); become United States citizens; speak and write the English language; attain employment skills and/or improve their current employment; become self-sufficient; master basic academic skills to help their children succeed in school; attain skills necessary to enter post-secondary education and training; and gain self-esteem, personal confidence and a sense of personal and civic responsibility. Questions about the program should be directed to Kirsten Fuglseth at (218) 681-0900 ext. 117.

EARLY CHILDHOOD FAMILY EDUCATION

Early Childhood Family Education is for birth through age four children. Parents and their children meet on Tuesday evenings to participate in learning activities and crafts; receive parenting tips and information; check out books and activity packets. A light snack is provided. Daycare is provided for older siblings during the in-school class time. Parents will receive a flyer on the theme and activities for each class. Call the school office to make sure you and your child are on the ECFE mailing list.

Days: Tuesdays
January 31
February 7, 14, 21, 28
March 7, 14, 21, 28
Times: 6:00 – 7:00 p.m.
Instructors: Gretchen Lee & Heidi Warne
Location: Badger Preschool Room

IMAGINATION LIBRARY

Parents with children birth to age five are encouraged to enroll their child in the Dolly Parton Imagination Library. Children will receive an age appropriate book each month in the mail. The program is FREE to district residents. Parent responsibilities are to submit an official registration form to the school office, notify the district of any address changes and read with your child. Registration forms are available in the district office.

EARLY HEAD START

Early Head Start for children birth to age four is offered through Northwest Community Action. For additional information and eligibility criteria contact Mark Carlson at 218-528-3227. Centers are held in the Badger Preschool room and the local instructor is Sylvia Christianson.
